Welcome!

Welcome to your Cellular One voicemail enabled by YouMail. YouMail is visual voicemail and a whole new way to take control of your messages. It's all about saving time, communicating more effectively, and having fun.

With YouMail, you have 3 ways to retrieve and manage your messages:

Option 1. Dial your cellular number

You can still listen to messages the way you always have. Just dial your own cell phone number and follow the prompts.

Option 2. Online at www.youmail.com

Login using your mobile number and pin, then point and click to play and delete messages on any computer or internet-ready mobile device.

See who called, from where, and even their picture. Listen to your messages in the order you want, not the order they came in. Forward messages easily by email, save them forever, or even post them to your Facebook page.

Option 3. Email

A call summary and mp3 audio file of your messages can be sent to any email address. Unify your messaging by receiving your emails and voicemails in the same place – your inbox. Easily search, share and save forever.

Other cool features:

Personal Custom Greetings: Easily record and assign different greetings for your friends, family, co-workers or boss. You can even greet callers by their name or choose from a library of free greetings. Or, you can assign one standard recorded greeting for all callers like you always have.

Block unwanted callers: Have you ever wanted to automatically hang up on unwanted callers before they left a message? With the DitchMail feature, you can easily let an unwanted caller think your number is no longer in service.
